DBT Beneficiary Registration process:

The beneficiary registration for DBT is a mandatory step for all the apprentices, to receive government share of stipend through DBT.

Steps to get successful beneficiary registration and receive DBT.

Step 1: Aadhaar number verification.

Firstly, Aadhaar number is verified with UIDAI.

If Aadhaar number provided on NATS is not matching with UIDAI data. The registration fails at this step itself.

So it is recommended to check if the Aadhaar number provided on the portal is correct.

Step 2: Bank details verification.

Secondly, the bank details are verified through the NPCI Mapper.

It is recommended to check if the bank details provided on the portal are correct.

Step 3: Ensuring the active bank is AADHAAR SEEDED & MAPPED IN NPCI MAPPER.

1. The apprentice can visit his active bank & request to make his bank account - Aadhaar seeded and request them for Linking / Seeding of Aadhaar and bank account details for NPCI-Mapping for Receiving Direct Benefits.
2. The FAQs for successful beneficiary registration can be accessed from the NPCI website (only for reference purposes): <https://www.npci.org.in/what-we-do/nach/faqs> - and navigate to APBS for banks.
3. Post the successful Aadhaar seeding and Mapping in NPCI Mapper. The student has to opt for beneficiary re-registration on the NATS portal, to get the beneficiary registration successful.

Step 4: Beneficiary re-registration on NATS Portal.

On the NATS 2.0 Portal:

Login as student → Update Aadhaar, Bank Details → Perform the required changes-> Click "Update details". If any changes are required in Aadhaar number, bank account details, gender, and address of the apprentices as mentioned in the portal, for making corrections, the same can be performed there → DBT Re-register.

Wait for 3-4 working days to get the latest beneficiary re-registration

Note: Please note this may not be applicable for a few scenarios.
